The President and Gen. Fremont.

We do not propose to discuss the propriety of the recent order of the president modifying Fremont's proclamation, in any factious spirit. It is a matter of so much regret and sorrow to us that our president should be found turning back the work of freedom which had so fairly begun, that all passion and resentment has left us. We are now without hope that the blighting scourge of slavery will be touched by this war.

The bright vision of a free republic, cleared of all the blots and stains of the past, which has cheered us during the turmoil and woe which the civil war has bro't upon our land, is ended in disappointment.

President Lincoln, by his order to Gen. Fremont, shows what his policy is to be; and that policy strikes down the only power belonging to the nation which can abolish slavery. Congress cannot do it, neither can the president, and both combined would be powerless, as has been often admitted by all political parties.

It is the war power that must make the slave free, if it is done at all. Our major generals, in their several departments, can proclaim MARTIAL LAW, and under it every civil law is instantly abrogated. The slate is clean to begin anew, and the general can write upon it whatever he believes the necessities of the hour demand, without reference to any law of congress. Gen. Fremont wrote this:

—The slaves of all persons in the state of Missouri who shall take up arms against the United States, or who shall be directly proven to have taken part with their enemies in the field, are hereby declared free men. The president orders this to be modified so that it shall read: the slaves of all masters who require or permit them to take up arms against the United States, or to be employed in any military work whatever against the United States, shall be free from all claim of service to such masters.

The difference is great. Under the president's ruling, which is according to a law of congress, passed at the extra session, not a slave has yet been made free, and few or none ever will be. Under Fremont's proclamation the work had commenced and was going on rapidly, striking terror into the hearts of slaveholders who were in arms against the United States, and had their slaves at work at home supplying the family of the rebels and the rebel army with provisions. Their alarm is now over, for the president has said, as long as you keep your slaves from service in the rebel army, they may feed you and your brother conspirators.

It is said by some that the president was bound to interfere with the proclamation because it was not in accordance with a law of congress. This is not so. Martial law is above congressional law. The general had a right to abolish it, by the law of war, if he thought necessary. The president knew that, and he acknowledges Fremont's right to do so, because he does not object to the abolition of several other laws of congress and the constitutional right of trial by jury, in the same proclamation. He approves of every thing but that which relates to the slaves. So it cannot be argued with fairness that the proclamation was modified because it was contrary to a law of congress.

How Ought this War to be Prosecuted?

There is not one man in a hundred in all the free states at this time but what is fully satisfied that this civil war upon which we have entered, must be prosecuted till one or the other of the parties is conquered; till law and order on the one hand triumph in every state in the Union, or on the other hand, till the government is overthrown, the constitution destroyed, and anarchy is supreme.

At the beginning of our troubles there was a large and respectable class of men who were, perhaps, honest and earnest in their belief that a peaceable settlement of national differences might be effected that ought to be satisfactory to both sections of the country. But when they discovered that every overture in this direction was rejected with scorn by those who really contemplated a dissolution of the Union; that whenever they seemed to listen to such propositions they did not abate one iota of their hostile preparations, this class became silent and convinced of their error.

There was another class who believed in peaceful separation. They had a just horror of civil war, and thought that the states that were not satisfied with the Union and the constitution as it is, should be allowed peaceably to form themselves into a separate confederacy or confederacies as they might choose, and still let the northern and middle states remain. But when this class were forced to understand that the malcontents would not have even peaceful separation, and that although all they wanted was "to be let alone," they by no means meant to let us alone, they also began to be convinced of their error.

Still later there has been an attempt to build up a peace party, which has proved utterly abortive, and we have been forced back again to the inevitable conclusion, that if we want a peace, we must conquer.

We hear from the division of General Banks that his command is in excellent condition. Mrs. Banks shares the tent of the ex-governor, and gives her influence in favor of good order and to the comfort of the troops.

In Cleveland, on Wednesday last, three young women were discovered in the 41st regiment, attired as males, having enlisted as such.

The Toronto (Canada) Leader, a paper in the employ of the secessionists, is continually working itself into a passion over the fear that citizens of Canada will enter the Union army.

The Detroit Advertiser of yesterday says the fleet of vessels which left Milwaukee and Chicago a few days since have been continually passing at short intervals for the past two days. Up to this evening not less than one hundred and fifty had gone by, and yet more were still in sight. This fleet has probably the largest quantity of grain which has ever passed this port during the same number of hours before.

The work goes bravely on in Western Virginia. Cox has moved the main body of his army from Gauley Bridge toward Lewiston. Wise and Floyd are rapidly retreating. Gen. Reynolds is in a strong position on Cheat Mountain. More men are required there to attack and punish Lee. Gen. Schenck is at Grafton pushing matters ahead finely.

Louisville, Sept. 18—11:30 A. M.

There has been no communication over any part of the southern line since 6 o'clock last evening, consequently we have no information concerning the progress of Col. Rousseau's command and the home guards, which left by rail last night and this morning.

The city is quiet, but full of uneasiness.

Louisville, Sept. 18—Evening.

At 9 o'clock this morning, when the government troops reached Rolling Fork, five miles north of Muldraugh's Hill, they found the bridge over the ford burned, and the enemy on Muldraugh's Hill. Number unascertained.

Gen. Sherman, discovering a ford about breast deep, sent a reconnoitering party which had not returned at 4 o'clock this afternoon, at which time Lieut. Col. Johnston was dispatched from Louisville with 700 additional force, consisting of the remnant of Rousseau's command, and about 400 of the home guard.

There was great enthusiasm by the bystanders at the depot on the departure of the troops from Louisville.

The city is full of rumors—among which is one that Gen. Buckner is commanding the confederate forces at Muldraugh's Hill. This is doubtful. Another is, that after the secessionists had burned the bridge at Rolling Fork, the Union men burned the bridge at Nolin, fifteen miles south of Elizabethtown, whereby they stopped two of three trains which the secessionists supposed they had obtained by the burning of the Rolling Fork bridge. This is probably true.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 18.

The committee on federal relations reported substantially:

"WHEREAS, The confederate troops have invaded Kentucky, and insolently dictate the terms upon which they will retire, therefore,

"Resolved, That General Anderson be invited to take instant charge of this department, and call out a force sufficient to expel the invaders."

This passed the house, and the senate concurred—25 to 9.

The senate also passed the Concokin resolution, with but three nays, which proposes to confine the war to the two armies, and discontinue partisan quarrels as leading to civil war.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 19.

The 19th Illinois regiment reached this city at 2 o'clock this morning and marched to Fourth Market, where a supper had been provided for them, and from thence to the Little Miami depot, where they took the cars for Camp Dennison. The bodies of the dead were taken to the Orphan Asylum buildings where they were placed in coffins ready for burial. Many of the bodies are badly disfigured, but the greater portion seem to have come to their deaths from internal bruises received in the crash. At 2 o'clock this afternoon the bodies will be brought to Spring Grove for burial. A resolution was adopted in the city council last evening, that the mayor issue a proclamation requesting proprietors of stores in the streets through which the funeral procession will pass, to close the same during the hours of the funeral. The remains of Captain Howard will be sent this evening to Galena for interment. The Odd Fellows have taken charge of the body to send it forward to his friends.

DARNESTOWN, Md., Sept. 18.

It was understood to-day that Gen. McClellan would arrive here to-morrow on his way to review the army of the upper Potowmack.

There is a slight expectation everywhere now of an attack by the rebels, to whom the arrest of the Maryland legislators and our strong fortifications and forces at all points, are not pleasing reflections. It is rumored, however, that Gen. Johnston, with a column forty or fifty thousand strong, is moving toward usassivable points, and that they followed up the Potowmack as if with the design of crossing.

The rebels are heavily fortifying several hills south of Monson's.

Monday night a scouting party of fifteen from the 8th New York, encountered three rebel companies opposite Seneca Mills, but escaped with loss of two or three. In the morning the rebel camp was shelled until it disappeared.

The scouts saw not a living being except the negro in the country. The wheat had been harvested, but the corn fields were drying up.

Gen. McClellan's body guard is to be raised to one hundred and fifty men, and their uniform is to be changed by his wish.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Times.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 18.

A rebel spy was arrested going down the river in a skiff today.

He had in his possession drawings and plans of the arsenal and the intrenchments around the city.

I have advised from Lexington up to Monday.

Price had summoned the federal forces to surrender.

Col. Mulligan, in command, replied, telling him to go to hell.

An attack would soon follow.

The federal intrenchments are weak, and it is doubtful whether they can hold out until reinforcements arrive.

The secessionists hold both sides of the river. Price with the main force being on the same side of the river as the town.

Gen. Hunter and staff have gone out on the Pacific railroad. I am not certain whether to Jefferson City or Rolla.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.

Two rebels were captured this morning, and one was killed.

Gen. McClellan's body guard is to be raised to one hundred and fifty men, and their uniform is to be changed by his wish.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Times.

WICHITA, Sept. 18.

Gov. Randall delighted the Wisconsin boys in Gen. King's brigade by a speech to-night, for which he received three hearty cheers.

Gen. Stone shelled the rebels out of their camp, partially entrenched, at Goose Creek, and all will linger in at par for day, perhaps weeks and months.

M., on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of September next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state offices. Each assembly district, under the new apportionment, will be entitled to two delegates in the convention.

The committee recommend that the primary meetings for the selection of delegates be held on or before the 14th day of September, and that the district committees issue early calls for such meetings, that the people may be thoroughly通知, and choose delegates who fairly reflect their wishes.

HORACE RUDLE,

Chairman State Republican Central Comm.

Madison, August 12, 1861.

Fifth Assembly District Convention.

The Republican electors of the 5th Assembly District, comprising the city of Janesville, will meet in convention by their delegates, on SATURDAY, the 21st day of September, A. D. 1861, at 7 o'clock P. M., at the court room, to elect two delegates to attend the Republican State Convention in the city of Madison on the 25th day of September, 1861. The several wards in the city will be entitled to the following number of delegates in said assembly district convention, under the apportionment of the city committee, to-wit:

1st Ward, 6; 2d, 4; 3d, 4; 4th, 8;

We recommend the several ward committees to call the ward conventions, to elect such delegates, on the 17th day of September, 1861, at 1 o'clock P. M., at the places where the last elections were held, in the separate wards.

N. E. LUND, GEO. A. YOUNG, S. FOODY, JR., Assembly Dist. Comm.

JOHN R. BENNETT, 1 Wm. A. LAWRENCE, Isaac HOWLAND, R. B. TAYLOR, City Committee.

Second Assembly District Convention.

The several towns comprising the second assembly district in Rock county, (to wit: the towns of Fulton, Harmony, Milton and Loyal) are requested to send their usual number of delegates, to meet in convention at the house of Joseph Goodrich, in Milton, on the 23d day of September inst., at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of sending two delegates to represent said district in the Republican State Convention to be held at the Capitol, in Madison, on the 25th day of September, 1861, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

By order of the District Committee.

Dated September 12th, 1861.

Assembly District Convention.

The Republicans of the towns of Clinton, Bradford, Janesville and La Prairie are requested to elect delegates from their several towns, to meet in convention at Emerald Grove, on SATURDAY, the 21st inst., at 1 o'clock P. M., to chose two delegates to represent the district in the Republican State Convention to be held on the 25th inst.

By order of Committee.

Town of Johnstown.

The legal voters of the town of Johnstown are requested to meet at the Johnstown Center House, on THURSDAY EVENING, September 19th, at 7 o'clock, to elect four delegates to the Assembly District Convention to be held at Emerald Grove, on Saturday, the 25th inst., at 2 o'clock P. M.

By order of Town Committee.

The President and Gen. Fremont.

We do not propose to discuss the propriety of the recent order of the president modifying Fremont's proclamation, in any factious spirit. It is a matter of so much regret and sorrow to us that our president should be found turning back the work of freedom which had so fairly begun, that all passion and resentment has left us. We are now without hope that the blighting scourge of slavery will be touched by this war. The bright vision of a free republic, cleared of all the blots and stains of the past, which has cheered us during the turmoil and woe which the civil war has brought upon our land, is ended in disappointment. President Lincoln, by his order to Gen. Fremont, shows what his policy is to be; and that policy strikes down the only power belonging to the nation which can abolish slavery. Congress cannot do it, neither can the president, and both combined would be powerless, as has been often admitted by all political parties. It is the war power that must make the slave free, if it is done at all. Our major generals, in their several departments, can proclaim MARTIAL LAW, and under it every civil law is instantly abrogated. The slate is clean to begin anew, and the general can write upon it whatever he believes the necessities of the hour demand, without reference to any law of congress. Gen. Fremont wrote this:—The slaves of all persons in the state of Missouri who shall take up arms against the United States, or who shall be directly proven to have taken part with their enemies in the field, are hereby declared free men. The president orders this to be modified so that it shall read: the slaves of all masters who require or permit them to take up arms against the United States, or to be employed in any military work whatever against the United States, shall be free from all claim of service to such masters.

The difference is great. Under the president's ruling, which is according to law of congress, passed at the extra session, not a slave has yet been made free, and few or none ever will be. Under Fremont's proclamation the work had commenced and was going on rapidly, striking terror into the hearts of slaveholders who were in the United States, and had a most shocking accident occurred at a Philadelphia theatre last Saturday night, by which fourteen black girls were badly burned by the taking fire of their clothing while preparing to play the "Tempest." Three of these people it is believed will die, and all will linger in acute pain for days, perhaps weeks and months. The girls seem to suffer the most severely, and many of the assistants were more or less burned in endeavoring to extinguish the flames and extricate the sufferers.

HALE FELLOWS WELL. Mr.—An exchange says that the allies of the southern rebels in order of importance are, the Devil, the Loudon Times and the Indians.

The Reported Battle at Lexington.

We have waited till a late hour to have our afternoon dispatches bring a confirmation or denial of the battle reported under our telegraphic head, at Lexington. At the present writing nothing has been received. That an important battle has taken place there, seems very probable, but the number slain is incredible, and we shall anxiously await further intelligence.

THE disaster to Col. Turchin's regiment on the Ohio & Mississippi railroad turns out to be much worse than first reported. Such catastrophes are becoming alarmingly frequent, and it does seem as though the most vigilant measures should be taken to discover the desperadoes who perpetrate these infernal deeds, and bring them to condign punishment.

A FEMALE REBEL CAPTAIN.—The Memphis Avalanche says that one of the Louisiana companies in the battle at Manassas lost its captain. The company then unanimously elected the wife of the deceased to fill his place, and the lady, in uniform, passed through Memphis on the 11th inst., on her way to assume the command of her company.

THE JEWS IN THE FEDERAL ARMY.—The Jewish Messenger alludes to the patriotic action of the Jews as follows:

In the army of the Union our people will be found to occupy no insignificant part, taking into consideration their comparative fewness of numbers. Commissioned and non-commissioned officers, as well as privates of the Jewish faith there are many; some, in command of fine regiments and gallant companies have made their mark already; some have been stricken down by the hand of the destroyer; some have received wounds which a lifetime may not heal; but, on the whole, they have been singularly blessed. The patriotism of our community has manifested itself in various ways; the unwonted spectacle of a Jewish synagogue has become an everyday sight.

The census marshal of Nevada territory has finished his report, and finds that the total population, including Esmeralda and Honey Lake, is 16,874.

Four hundred thousand dollars in demand treasury notes were received at Springfield, Ill., on Tuesday, from Washington, with which to pay off the government contractors. A large amount of these notes are also expected in Chicago in a day or two.

The governors of several of the states have issued proclamations appointing the 26th inst., (Thursday,) a day of general fasting and prayer, in accordance with the President's proclamation.

We hear from the division of General Banks that his command is in excellent condition. Mrs. Banks shares the toil of the ex-governor, and gives her influence in favor of good order and the comfort of the troops.

In Cleveland, on Wednesday last, three young women were discovered in the 41st regiment, attired as males, having enlisted as such.

The Toronto (Canada) Leader, a paper in the employ of the secessionists, is continually working itself into a passion over this rebellion. No mild means can be of any ultimate avail. It can only be cured by the utter subjugation of its founders and abettors, and those who think differently at this stage of the contest, are mere exceptions to the rule.

If then we must fight it out; if the war is inevitable, why should we not resort at once to the most summary and effective means to prosecute it? and if we have any little or great advantages over the enemy the employment of which is sanctioned by the laws of nations and the usages of war, why should we not seize upon them at once, and use them without our might? If the enemy has any tender points, it is our privilege and duty to strike him there, because in so doing we hasten the grand result which must be attained. If there is any point of attack which he dreads to have us improve, which it would make him tremble, let us do it.

The work goes bravely on in Western Virginia. Cox has moved the main body of his army from Gauley Bridge toward Lewisburg. Wise and Floyd are rapidly retreating. Gen. Reynolds is in a strong position on Cheat Mountain. More men are required there to attack and punish Gen. Schenck in Grafton pushing merrily ahead.

Let the men be poured into Western Virginia now, from the west, and our forces will be able to push forward and take Beauregard in the rear. Fill up the regiments and hurry them on. Now is the time to strike. Our victories should be followed up promptly and vigorously.—Cit. Gazette.

LORD PALMERSTON ON BULL RUN.—The following is Lord Palmerston's allusion to our affairs in his speech at the Cinque Ports banquet:

"Col. McDermott truly observed that recent events in America should teach us a valuable lesson. The example of what has happened across the Atlantic shows that you may collect thousands of men together and put uniforms on their backs and muskets in their hands, but you do not thereby convert them into soldiers or into an army (hear, hear); there must be discipline. It is not enough that there should be individual bravery. Why, our cousins in America, as individual men, are as brave as any that tread the earth. They are of the same stock as ourselves; they are descended from the same parents, are animated by the same spirit, and prepared to encounter equal dangers. But when thousands of men as personally courageous as any race in existence get together, each man wanting that confidence in his comrades which discipline and training can alone supply, they exhibit to the world that unfortunate rapidity of movement which took place at Bull Run. (Laughter.) That, I say, is no disparagement to the valor of the Americans, but affords, I repeat, a lesson which we ourselves may usefully ponder and remember, viz.: that discipline and organization are indispensable to make an army efficient in the field."

ESCAPE OF PRISONERS FROM RICHMOND.—Lt. Raynor, 1st Ohio; Capt. Hurd, 2d Kentucky, and Lt. Murphy, 35th New York escaped from Richmond and arrived here last night. They got out of jail by tying red flannel on the arm, which passed for a surgeon's badge. They made their way to a compass purchased in Richmond, through the forests and over streams, across to the lower Potowmack to our flotilla. There are heavy earthworks about Richmond, but no guns mounted. The prisoners are ill-treated, especially since the Hatteras affair.—Twenty-five undertook to escape shortly before these successful ones, but were captured and returned.

This passed the house, and the senate concurred.—25 to 9.

The senate also passed the Concklin resolution, with but three nays, which proposed to confine the war to the two armies, and discontinue partisan quarrels as leading to civil war.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 18.

The committee on federal relations reported substantially:

"WHEREAS, the confederate troops have invaded Kentucky, and insolently dictate the terms upon which they will retire, therefore,

"Resolved, That General Anderson be invited to take instant charge of this department, and call out a force sufficient to expel the invaders."

This passed the house, and the senate concurred.—25 to 9.

Last Night's Report.

FREDERICK, Md., Sept. 17.

The house met at 11 o'clock to-day. Eleven members were present and answered to their names, and on motion they adjourned till to-morrow noon.

The Union members of both houses refused to meet this morning. The legislature is virtually dead, all the officers being under arrest to prevent calling the roll. The Union members will leave this afternoon for home, and the secession members for Fort McHenry.

The talk of invasion by Gen. Johnston is laughed at. Union flags are flying, with the motto, "The Union, it must be preserved."

After two hours' confinement, the officers of the legislature were released on taking the oath of allegiance—all assenting except clerk J. M. Brewer, who was sent to Annapolis with nine others. At 4 o'clock this afternoon there was not a single member of the legislature in the city.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Times.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 18.

A rebel spy was arrested going down the river in a skiff to-day.

He had in his possession drawings and plans of the arsenal and the intrenchments at all points, not so pleasing reflections. It is rumored, however, that Gen. Johnston, with a column forty or fifty thousand strong, is moving toward assaultable points, and that they followed up the Potowmack as if with the design of crossing.

The rebels are heavily fortifying several hills south of Munson's.

Monday night a scouting party of fifteen from the 8th New York, encountered three rebel companies opposite Seneca Mills, but escaped with a loss of two or three. In the morning the rebel camp was shelled until it disappeared.

This morning, in a picket skirmish south of Alexandria, two South Carolina cavalry were wounded.

Gen. McClellan's body guard is to be raised to one hundred and fifty-eight, and their uniform is to be changed by his wish.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 18, 11 P. M.

Two couriers have just arrived from Lexington, bringing the following intelligence, believed by the commanding officer here to be in the main reliable:

Gen. Price commenced an attack on the entrenchments at Lexington, commanded by Col. Mulligan. On Monday the fight was very severe all day. Price assaulted the works, and was repulsed with great loss. The fight had been renewed on Tuesday morning by Price, but feebly. When the couriers left, Gen. Lane was at Johnston, Bates county, on Monday morning, with a force of from two to three thousand, marching to the relief of Lexington. The rebel loss on Monday is reported at four thousand, and that of the federal troops at eight hundred, which is probably exaggerated.

WAR MEETINGS.

A meeting in aid of the movement to form the new regiment will be held:

At the school house at EMERALD GROVE, FRIDAY EVENING, the 20th, at 7 o'clock P.M.

At Magnolia Corners, on FRIDAY EVENING, September 20th, at 7 o'clock P.M. Let everybody with their wives come out.

At Albany, Green county, at which an Ox will be roasted, on SATURDAY, the 21st inst., at 2 o'clock P.M. L. P. Harvey and others will speak.

At the Stone School House, in North Johnstown, on FRIDAY, the 20th day of September inst.

Good speakers will be present at the above meetings.

WE HAVE IT AT LAST.—We have at last become the possessor of one of the much desired treasury notes. It is one of the "demand notes,"—a ten, handsomely engraved, not in our judgment on the best quality of paper, but good enough, and we esteem it equal to the Epluribus Unum.

A NEW COMPANY.—We learn that our friend Fenton F. Stevens has been appointed to raise another company of volunteers in this city. If energy, experience, business capacity and personal popularity will ensure success, Fenton will surely succeed. His headquarters will be the room now used by the Roger Guards.

We have heard an anecdote of one of our county officers that does much greater credit to his ingenuity than to his courage. It seems that he was addressing a public meeting in some of the neighboring towns, and was trying to enforce upon his hearers the necessity of their volunteering for the war, when some one of the audience suggested that the speaker set the example and others would follow. This was more than our official bargained for, but after a moment's hesitation, he freed himself from his uncomfortable dilemma in this way.—He said he was a county officer; that should he volunteer, the county would have to elect another officer in his place, and it was not any way likely they would get as good a one as he was. We are sorry to weaken the force of this excuse by adding that the gentleman already enjoys a high military title, which seems at present to be an empty honor.

THE ROGER GUARDS.—This fine company numbered this morning one hundred and one men. Without disparaging any of the former companies that have been raised in this city, we must say that this company is composed of men who look more like real effective service than any of their predecessors. Capt. Roger is drilling his company in a very thorough manner, and he is aided in this work most efficiently by Lieutenant Nichols, who we understand has had experience in military matters.

DOUGLAS GUARDS.—Lieut. E. C. Lawrence is authorized to raise one company in this state, to be called the Randall Guard, for the Douglas brigade of Chicago. His headquarters will be at the Hyatt House, in this city.

DEDICATION.—The new Free Baptist Church in the north part of the town of Johnstown, will be dedicated on Thursday, the 26th inst. A large attendance is expected. Services will commence at 11 o'clock A.M.

WANTED.—A good girl, used to cooking and house work generally. Apply at this office.

About seventy of Capt. Alexander's sharpshooters passed through this city this afternoon, on their way to Washington.

Capt. Valley's artillery company from Beloit, will go into camp at Racine to-morrow.

The Rock County Rangers is the name of a new company just starting in Beloit, under Capt. J. A. Gordon, for the Rock and Green county regiment.

MILITARY ITEMS.—Commissionats have been issued to John F. Vallee, captain, George B. Estery, 1st Lieutenant, Andrew A. Hunt and M. H. M. Dewitt, as 2d Lieut. of Valley's Battery.

To Ed. E. Woodman, Captain, James L. Murray, 1st Lieutenant, George C. Brown, 2d Lieutenant, of the Janesville City Zouaves.

The Waterloo Rifles report full and want to be called into camp.

The Fremont rifles, Lieutenant T. L. Kemmer, Portage City, report sixty five men enlisted. Accepted for the 10th Regiment, and ordered to be placed at board.

The Waupun Rifle Co., Capt. Miller, report seventy men sworn in.

The Sheboygan Fremont Rangers report fifty men.

EXCITEMENT IN THEATRICAL CIRCLES.—There is considerable excitement among the habitues of the theatrical circles at this time growing out of the sudden disappearance of a gentleman who was somewhat well known in conjunction with the financial department of a popular theater. It is rumored that the gentleman in question who has for a long time been in partnership with the management—has suddenly eloped with a large proportion of the funds belonging to the principal of the firm. He has been missed for nearly ten days and the delusion is rumored to be in the neighborhood of $20,000.—New York Express.

The accident on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad proves to be worse than at first reported. Four passenger cars went into the creek, one box-car and one baggage car falling on top of them. The passenger cars contained two hundred and fifty men of companies E. F. and I. the latter two were the principal sufferers. Captain Howard, of Company I, was killed. Up to noon to-day about thirty bodies had been taken out, and more are under the wreck. A train is now on the way to this city with twenty-two of the wounded. It is the impression that between forty and fifty are killed. Circumstances indicate that the bridge had been weakened by some traitorous or malicious persons. The bridge was sixty feet span, ten feet high, and was lately inspected.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette. From the Eighth Regiment.

HEADQUARTERS JANESVILLE FIRE ZOUAVES, CAMP RANDALL, Sept. 17th, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—I see in your local department a statement that the 8th Regiment, quartered here, has not got all its tents and no blankets at all. The gentlemen that wrote the article certainly could not have been posted, for the most of the tents have been up for the last eight days, and as for blankets, there is not a company on the ground but what has been supplied as soon as mustered in, and the most as soon as the requisition was made out for the blankets. There are blankets enough here for all, and enough left for those that come. I think if the 8th Regiment was full there would be blankets enough left to accommodate the Thirteenth, should they even want them; but I think by what I can see and hear around this place, that the Eighth will be filled before there is anything given out to supply parts of regiments throughout the state. Should there be any persons in Rock or Green counties that feel like going with the Eighth, they must not feel uneasy about the tents and blankets, for they are here, and everything else that pertains to the fitting out of a regiment. The harness is here, 56 pounds to a man. Hoping you will find room for this in your paper,

I am yours, &c.,

W. B. BRITTON, Captain, Fire Zouaves, 8th Regiment.

P. S.—I forgot to mention that C. L. Noggle has been promoted from our ranks to Quartermaster's Sergeant, and James Croft, Jr., appointed 2d Sergeant in his stead.

W. B. B. FIRMNESS OF THE CHEROKEE CHIEF, JOHN ROSS.—John Ross, the Cherokee chieftain, continues firmly to resist all attempts made by the rebels to swerve him from the consistent position of neutrality assumed by him at the outbreak of the present unhappy contest.

Albert Pike, the Indian agent of the pretended Southern Confederacy, has written a letter to the old chief, full of the blandishments of flattery, ingeniously intended to court the old man into an abandonment of his policy. Having essayed to bring about a conversion by the gentle tones of persuasion without effecting his object, the Little Rock post, despairing of success, then tries what virtue there is in a kind of a threat. It appears that a generous proposition had been made to Ross by the confederates, in relation to the Indian lands lying on the border. In allusion to this proposition, Pike intimates to Ross that, whereas, the latter "having rejected the terms offered by him of an alliance offensive and defensive, the proposition that the Confederate States will ever feel bound to pay the Cherokee people the purchase money of the eighty thousand acres of land lying between Kansas and Missouri, is now withdrawn forever."

The old Cherokee does not seem to swallow the bait thrown out by the fishy Pike. He possesses too much sagacity to allow of his being duped by such seductive promises.—St. Louis Democrat.

DEATH OF EX-GOVERNOR BRIGGS, OF MASSACHUSETTS.—Ex-Governor George N. Briggs has died of the gunshot wound which, a few days ago, was reported as having occurred to him in his house in Massachusetts.

He was born in Andover, Berkshire Co., Massachusetts, on the 12th of April, 1796. He commenced life as a hatter's apprentice, but his indomitable energy led him to abandon his trade for the purpose of acquiring a liberal education.

He spent a single year in an academy; fitted himself for the prosecution of legal studies by the reading of borrowed class books at the light of a fire after his labors in the short winter days; entered an office as errand boy, but made such progress that in 1818, in his twenty-second year, he was admitted to the bar.

In 1831 he was elected a representative in congress from Massachusetts, and officiated as such till 1843, being chairman of the postoffice committee during the twenty-seventh congress. In 1843 he was elected governor of Massachusetts—and since his demission of that office has been one of the most successful, energetic and respected lawyers in New England.

TUSCULUM GUARDS.—This fine company, numbered this morning one hundred and one men. Without disparaging any of the former companies that have been raised in this city, we must say that this company is composed of men who look more like real effective service than any of their predecessors. Capt. Ruger is drilling his company in a very thorough manner, and he is aided in this work most efficiently by Lieutenant Nichols, who we understand has had experience in military matters.

RUGER GUARDS.—This fine company, numbered this morning one hundred and one men. Without disparaging any of the former companies that have been raised in this city, we must say that this company is composed of men who look more like real effective service than any of their predecessors. Capt. Ruger is drilling his company in a very thorough manner, and he is aided in this work most efficiently by Lieutenant Nichols, who we understand has had experience in military matters.

REBELS INSTRUCTED.—We have it from the best authority that all officers, messengers, agents and mail guards of the Pike's Peak and California overland mail company are rank secessionists, and are doing all in their power to injure the government, whose pensioners they are. All Union men employed by the company have been discharged and secessionists put in their places.

This company has carried the mails of the United States to and from Pike's Peak and California since last spring at an enormous contract. We understand, however, that the government has not paid them any portion of the contract—which is fortunate.

It is not time that the post office department should withdraw its patronage from such institutions, and make some different arrangements for the carrying of its mails?

Republican State Convention.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the Capital, in the city of Madison, at 12 o'clock M., on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of September next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state offices.

Each assembly district, under the new apportionment, will be entitled to two delegates in the convention.

The committees recommend that the primary meetings for the selection of delegates be held on or before the 14th day of September, and that the district committees issue early calls for such meetings, that the people may be thoroughly informed, and choose delegates who fairly reflect their wishes.

HORACE RUBLEE,

Chairman Republican Central Com.

Madison, August 12, 1861.

Fifth Assembly District Convention.

The Republican electors of the 5th Assembly District, comprising the city of Janesville, will meet in convention, by their delegates, on SATURDAY, the 21st day of September, A. D. 1861, at 7 o'clock P. M., at the court room, to elect two delegates to attend the Republican State Convention at the city of Madison on the 25th day of September, 1861. The several wards in the city will be entitled to the following number of delegates in said assembly district convention, under the apportionment of the city committee, to wit:

5th, 4 1/4 Ward, 4

We recommend the several ward committees to call the ward conventions, to elect such delegates, on the 17th day of September, 1861, at 7 o'clock P. M., at the places where the last elections were held, in the separate wards.

M., for the purpose of sending two delegates to attend the Republican State Convention to be held at the Capitol, in Madison, on the 25th day of September, 1861, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

By order of Committee.

Town of Johnstown.

The legal voters of the town of Johnstown are requested to meet at the Johnstown Center House, on THURSDAY EVENING, September 19th, at 7 o'clock, to elect four delegates to the Assembly District Convention to be held at Emerald Grove, on Saturday, the 20th inst., at 2 o'clock P. M. By order of Town Committee.

The President and Gen. Fremont.

We do not propose to discuss the propriety of the recent order of the president modifying Fremont's proclamation, in any fictitious spirit. It is a matter of so much regret and sorrow to us that our president should be found turning back the work of freedom which had so fairly begun, that all passion and resentment has left us. We are now without hope that the blighting scourge of slavery will be touched by this war. The bright vision of a free republic, cleared of all the blots and stains of the past, which has cheered us during the turmoil and woe which the civil war has bro't upon our land, is ended in disappointment. President Lincoln, by his order to Gen. Fremont, shows what his policy is to be; and that policy strikes down the only power belonging to the nation which can abolish slavery. Congress cannot do it, neither can the president, and both combined would be powerless, as has been often admitted by all political parties. It is the war power that must make the slave free, if it is done at all. Our major generals, in their several departments, can proclaim MARTIAL LAW, and under it every civil law is instantly abrogated. The slate is clean to begin anew, and the general can write upon it whatever he believes the necessities of the hour demand, without reference to any law of congress. Gen. Fremont wrote this:

"The slaves of all persons in the state of Missouri who shall take up arms against the United States, or who shall be directly proven to have taken part with their enemies in the field, are hereby declared free men. The president orders this to be modified so that it shall read: the slaves of all masters who require or permit them to take up arms against the United States, or to be employed in any military work whatever against the United States, shall be free from all claim of service to such masters."

A most shocking accident occurred at a Philadelphia theatre last Saturday night, by which fourteen little girls were badly burned by the taking fire of their clothing while preparing to play the "Tempest." Three of these people it is believed will die, and all will linger in acute pain for days, perhaps weeks and months. The girls seem to suffer the most severely, and many of the assistants were more or less burned in endeavoring to extinguish the flames and extricate the sufferers.

HALE FELLOWS WELL. Mr.—An exchange says that the allies of the Southern rebels in order of importance are, the Devil, the Loudon Times and the Indians.

The Reported Battle at Lexington.

We have waited till a late hour to have our afternoon dispatches bring a confirmation or denial of the battle reported under our telegraphic head, at Lexington. At the present writing nothing has been received. That an important battle has taken place there, seems very probable, but the number slain is incredible, and we shall anxiously await further intelligence.

The disaster to Col. Turchin's regiment on the Ohio & Mississippi railroad turns out to be much worse than first reported. Such catastrophes are becoming alarmingly frequent, and it does seem as though the most vigilant measures should be taken to discover the desperadoes who perpetrate these infernal deeds, and bring them to condign punishment.

A FEMALE REBEL CAPTAIN.—The Memphis Avalanche says that one of the Louisiana companies in the battle at Manassas lost its captain. The company then unanimously elected the wife of the deceased to fill his place, and the lady, in uniform, passed through Memphis on the 11th inst., on her way to assume the command of her company.

THE JEWS IN THE FEDERAL ARMY.—The Jewish Messenger alludes to the patriotic action of the Jews as follows:

In the army of the Union our people will be found to occupy no insignificant part, taking into consideration their comparative fewness of numbers. Commissioned and non-commissioned officers, as well as privates of the Jewish faith there are many; some in command of regiments and gallant companies have made their mark already; some have been struck down by the hand of the destroyer; some have received wounds which a lifetime may not heal; but, on the whole, they have been singularly blessed. The patriotism of our community has manifested itself in various ways; the unwonted spectacle of the star spangled banner floating from a Jewish synagogue has become an every-day sight.

The census marshal of Nevada territory has finished his report, and finds that the total population, including Esmeralda and Honey Lake, is 16,374.

Four hundred thousand dollars in demand treasury notes were received at Springfield, Ill., on Tuesday, from Washington, with which to pay off the government contractors. A large amount of these notes are also expected in Chicago in a day or two.

The governors of several of the states have issued proclamations appointing the 26th inst., (Thursday) a day of general fasting and prayer, in accordance with the President's proclamation.

We hear from the division of General Banks that his command is in excellent condition. Mrs. Banks shares the tent of the ex-governor, and gives her influence in favor of good order and the comfort of the troops.

In Cleveland, on Wednesday last, three young women were discovered in the 41st regiment, attired as males, having enlisted as such.

The Toronto (Canada) Leader, a paper in the employ of the secessionists, is continually working itself into a passion over the fear that citizens of Canada will enter the Union army.

The Detroit Advertiser of yesterday says the fleet of vessels which left Milwaukee and Chicago a few days since have been continually passing at short intervals for the past two days. Up to this evening not less than one hundred and fifty had gone by, and yet more were still in sight. This fleet has probably the largest quantity of grain which has ever passed this port during the same number of hours before.

The work goes bravely on in Western Virginia. Cox has moved the main body of his army from Gauley Bridge toward Lewisburg. Wise and Floyd are rapidly retreating. Gen. Reynolds is in a strong position on Cheat Mountain. More men are required there to attack and punish Lee. Gen. Schenck is at Grafton pushing matters ahead finely.

Let the men be poured into Western Virginia now, from the west, and our forces will be able to push forward and take Beaufort in the rear. Fill up the regiments and hurry them on. Now is the time to strike. Our victories should be followed up promptly and vigorously.—Civ. Gazette.

LORD PALMERSTON ON BULL RUN.—The Lord is Lord Palmerston's allusion to our affairs in his speech at the Cinque Ports banquet:

"Col. McMurdo truly observed that recent events in America should teach us a valuable lesson. The example of what has happened across the Atlantic shows that you may collect thousands of men together and put uniforms on their backs and muskets in their hands, but you do not thereby convert them into soldiers or into an army (heav. hear); there must be discipline. It is not enough that there should be individual bravery. Why, our cousins in America, as individual men, are as brave as any that tread the earth. They are of the same stock as ourselves; they are descended from the same parent; are animated by the same spirit, and prepared to encounter equal dangers. But when thousands of men as personally courageous as any race, in existence get together, each man wanting that confidence in his comrades which discipline and training can alone supply, they exhibit to the world that unfortunate rapidity of movement which took place at Bull Run.—(Laughter.) That, I say, is no disparagement to the valor of the Americans, but evidently, I repeat, a lesson which we ourselves may usefully ponder and remember, viz: that discipline and organization are indispensable to make an army efficient in the field."

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 18.—The committee on federal relations reported substantially:

"WHEREAS, The confederate troops have invaded Kentucky, and insolently dictate the terms upon which they will retire, therefore,

"Resolved, That General Anderson be invited to take instant charge of this department, and call out a force sufficient to expel the invaders."

This passed the house, and the senate concurred—25 to 9.

The senate also passed the Conklin resolution, with but three nays, which proposes to confine the war to the two armies, and discontinue partisan quarrels as leading to civil war.

Louisville, Sept. 18.—There have been no trains from the south, and no telegraphic communication south of here to day.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Gov. Randall delighted the Wisconsin boys in Gen. King's brigade by a speech to-night, for which he received three hearty cheers.

Gen. Stone shelled the rebels out of their camp, partially entrenched, at Goose Creek, Shore line, for $24,000.

VESSELS PURCHASED BY THE GOVERNMENT.—The schooner Dan Smith, of New Haven, has been sold to the government for $8,000, and the schooner Arietta for $6,000. The new propeller Valley City, of Derby, has been sold to government for $18,000. The government has also purchased in Baltimore the steamers Balloon and High Jenkins, formerly of the Eastern Shore line, for $24,000.

HALE FELLOWS WELL. Mr.—An exchange says that the allies of the Southern rebels in order of importance are, the Devil, the Loudon Times and the Indians.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.
BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

FREDERICK, Md., Sept. 17.—The house met at 11 o'clock to-day.—Eleven members were present and answered to their names, and on motion they adjourned till noon to-morrow.

The Union members of both houses refused to meet this morning. The legislature is virtually dead, all the officers being under arrest to prevent calling the roll. The Union members will leave this afternoon for home, and the secession members for Fort McHenry.

The talk of invasion by Gen. Johnston is laughed at. Union flags are flying, with the motto, "The Union, it must be preserved."

After two hours' confinement, the officers of the legislature were released on taking the oath of allegiance—all assenting except clerk J. M. Brewer, who was sent to Annapolis with nine others. At 4 o'clock this afternoon there was not a single member of the legislature in the city.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Times.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 18.—A rebel spy was arrested going down the river in a skiff to-day.

He had in his possession drawings and plans of the arsenal and the intrenchments around the city.

I have advices from Lexington up to Monday.

Price had summoned the federal forces to surrender.

Col. Mulligan, in command, replied, telling him to go to hell.

An attack would soon follow.

The federal intrenchments are weak, and it is doubtful whether they can hold out until reinforcements arrive.

The secessionists hold both sides of the river.

Price with the main force being on the same side of the river as the town.

Gen. Hunter and staff have gone out on the Pacific railroad. I am not certain whether to Jefferson City or Rolla.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—I spent the day along the lines, from the Chain Bridge to Alexandria.

The only skirmish of consequence was at Munson's Hill. We lost two killed.

Five members of the Michigan third regiment were badly wounded, and seven slightly wounded.

The relative position along the line is unchanged. The strength of our defensive works is immense. They are thought capable of resisting any assault that may be made upon them.

The men of the Michigan third regiment, who are in an advanced position, are in the best spirits. They are supplied, in common with all the troops, with an abundance of provisions.

Officers connected with the Baltimore & Ohio railroad say that the damage done to that road by the rebels, west of Harper's Ferry, is such as will require a month to repair. The road is practically destroyed through severance.

Postmaster General Blair has returned from Missouri.

It is ascertained at the department of state that hereafter communication between the British government and its consuls in ports of the insurrectionary states will, with the consent of our government, be carried on by British vessels of war. This course will obviate the embarrassments that hitherto attended those communications through other channels.

The following order was issued through the postoffice department to day:

"Ordered, that the Louisville Courier be found to be an advocate of treason, hostility to the government and authority of the United States, be excluded from the mails and postoffices of the United States until further orders.

By order of the Postmaster General.

JOHN A. KASSON, . First Ass't Postmaster General.

All candidates for admission to the naval academy are requested to report at New York, R. I., between the 20th and 26th inst.

Gen. Meigs has returned to Washington.

An extraordinary cabinet meeting was held this afternoon. All the members were present.

A dispatch to the war department, dated Darnestown, says that a party of the New York thirty fourth, Col. Larue, crossed the Potowmack at Seneca creek on Monday, encountering a rebel force of three companies, with a loss of three men. Next morning they shelled the camp, driving the rebels back.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 18—11:30 A. M.—There has been no communication over any part of the southern line since 6 o'clock last evening, consequently we have no information concerning the progress of Col. R. L. Lee's march, and of which a force of 1,000 men had been repulsed at Bull Run.

At 9 o'clock this morning, when the government troops reached Rolling Fork, five miles north of Middletown's Hill, they found the bridge over the ford burned, and the enemy on Middletown's Hill. Number unascertained.

Gen. Sherman, discovering a ford about breast deep, sent a reconnoitering party which had not returned at 4 o'clock this afternoon, at which time Gen. Johnston was dispatched from Louisville with 700 additional force, consisting of the remnant of Rousseau's command, and about 400 of the horse guard.

There was great enthusiasm by the bystanders at the depot on the departure of the troops from Louisville.

The city is full of rumors—among which is one that Gen. Buckner is commanding the confederate forces at Middletown's Hill. This is doubtful. Another is that, after the secessionists had burned the bridge at Rolling Fork, the Union men burned the bridge at Nolin, fifteen miles south of Elizabethtown, whereby they stopped two of three trains which the secessionists supposed they had obtained by the burning of the bridge at Rolling Fork.

Second Ward Caucus.

The Republican electors of the Second Ward of the city of Janesville, are requested to meet at the Engine House in said ward, on SATURDAY, September 21st, 1861, at one o'clock P.M., for the purpose of electing six delegates to the Fifth Assembly District Convention, to be held in this city, on the 21st, at 7 o'clock P.M.

J. R. PEPPER,

Hiram Jackson, Ward Com.

A. S. Jones.

September 17th, 1861.

WAR MEETINGS.

A meeting in aid of the movement to form the new regiment will be held:

At the school house at EMERALD GROVE, FRIDAY EVENING, the 20th, at 7 o'clock.

At Magnolia Corners, on FRIDAY EVENING, September 20th, at 7 o'clock P.M. Let everybody with their wives come out.

At Albany, Green county, at which an Ox will be roasted, on SATURDAY, the 21st inst., at 2 o'clock P.M. L. P. Harvey and others will speak.

At the Stone School House, in North Johnstown, on FRIDAY, the 20th day of September inst.

Good speakers will be present at the above meetings.

WE HAVE IT AT LAST.—We have at last become the possessor of one of the much desired treasury notes. It is one of the "demand notes,"—a ten, handsomely engraved, not in our judgment on the best quality of paper, but good enough, and we esteem it equal to the Ephesus Usum.

A NEW COMPANY.—We learn that our friend Fenton E. Stevens has been appointed to raise another company of volunteers in this city. If energy, experience, business capacity and personal popularity will ensure success, Fenton will surely succeed. His head quarters will be the room now used by the Ruger Guards.

We have heard an anecdote of one of our county officers that does much greater credit to his ingenuity than to his courage. It seems that he was addressing a public meeting in some of the neighboring towns, and was trying to enforce upon his hearers the necessity of their volunteering for the war, when some one of the audience suggested that the speaker set the example and others would follow. This was more than our official bargained for, but after a moment's hesitation, he freed himself from his uncomfortable dilemma in this way.—He said he was a county officer; that should he volunteer, the county would have to elect another office in his place, and it wasn't any ways likely they would get as good a one as he was. We are sorry to weaken the force of this excuse by adding that the gentleman already enjoys a high military title, which seems at present to be an empty honor.

THE RUGER GUARDS.—This fine company numbered this morning one hundred and one men. Without disparaging any of the former companies that have been raised in this city, we must say that this company is composed of men who look more like real effective service than any of their predecessors. Capt. Ruger is drilling his company in a very thorough manner, and he is aided in this work most efficiently by Lieutenant Nichols, who we understand has had experience in military matters.

DOUGLAS BRIGADE.—Lieut. E. C. Lawrence is authorized to raise one company in this state, to be called the Randall Guard, for the Douglas Brigade of Chicago. His headquarters will be at the Hyatt House, in this city.

DEDICATION.—The new Free Baptist Church in the north part of the town of Johnstown, will be dedicated on Thursday, the 26th inst. A large attendance is expected. Services will commence at 11 o'clock A.M.

WANTED.—A good girl, used to cooking and house work generally. Apply at this office.

About seventy of Capt. Alexander's sharpshooters passed through this city this afternoon, on their way to Washington.

Capt. Valley's artillery company from Beloit, will go into camp at Racine to-morrow.

The Rock County Rangers is the name of a new company just starting in Beloit, under Capt. J. A. Gordon, for the Rock and Green county regiments.

MILITARY ITEMS.—Commissions have been issued to John F. Valley, captain, George B. Estery, 1st Lieutenant, Andrew A. Hunt and M. H. M. Dewitt, as 2d Lieutenant of Valley's Battery.

To Ed. E. Woodman, Captain, James L. Murray, 1st Lieutenant, George C. Brown, 2d Lieutenant, of the Janesville City Zouaves.

The Waterloo Rifles report full and want to be called into camp.

The Fremont rifles, Lieutenant T. L. Kennan, Portage City, report sixty-five men enlisted. Accepted for the 10th Regiment, and ordered to be placed at board.

The Waupaca Rifle Co., Capt. Hiller, report seventy men sworn in.

The Sheboygan Fremont Rangers report fifty-five men.

EXCITEMENT IN THEATRICAL CIRCLES.—There is considerable excitement among the theatres of the theatrical circles at this time growing out of the sudden disappearance of a gentleman who was somewhat well known in conjunction with the financial department of a popular theater. It is rumored that the gentleman in question—who has for a long time been in partnership with the management—has suddenly eloped with a large proportion of the funds belonging to the principal of the firm. He has been missed for nearly ten days and the devaluation is rumored to be $20,000. New York Express.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette. From the Eighth Regiment.

HEADQUARTERS JANESVILLE FIRE ZOUAVES, CAMP RANDALL, Sept. 17th, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I see in your local department a statement that the 8th Regiment, quartered here, has not got all its tents and no blankets at all. The gentleman that wrote the article certainly could not have been posted, for the most of the tents have been up for the last eight days, and as for blankets, there is not a company on the ground but what has been supplied as soon as mustered in, and the most as soon as the requisition was made out for the blankets. There are blankets enough here for all, and enough left for those that come. I think if the 8th regiment was full there would be blankets enough left to accommodate the Thirteenth, should they even want them; but I think by what I can see and hear around this place, that the 8th will be filled before there is anything given out to supply parts of regiments throughout the state. Should there be any persons in Rock or Green counties that feel like going with the Eighth, they must not feel uneasy about the tents and blankets, for they are here, and everything else that pertains to the fitting out of a regiment. The harness is here, 50 pounds to a man. Hoping you will find room for this in your paper, I am yours, &c.,

W. B. BRITTON, Capt., Fire Zouaves, 8th Regiment.

P. S.—I forgot to mention that C. L. Noggle has been promoted from our ranks to Quartermaster's Sergeant, and James Croft, Jr., appointed 2d Sergeant in his stead.

FIRMNESS OF THE CHEROKEE CHIEF, JOHN ROSS.—John Ross, the Cherokee chieftain, continues firmly to resist all attempts made by the rebels to swerve him from the consistent position of neutrality assumed by him at the outbreak of the present unhappy contest. Albert Pike, the Indian agent of the pretended Southern Confederacy, has written a letter to the old chief, full of the blandishments of flattery, ingeniously intended to court the old man into an abandonment of his policy. Having essayed to bring about a conversion by the gentle tones of persuasion without effecting his object, the Little Rock poet, despairing of success, then tries what virtue there is in a mild kind of threat. It appears that a generous proposition had been made to Ross by the confederates, in relation to the Indian lands lying on the border. In allusion to this proposition, Pike intimates to Ross that, whereas, the latter "having rejected the terms offered by him of an alliance offensive and defensive, the proposition that the Confederate States will ever feel bound to pay the Cherokee people the purchase money of the eighty thousand acres of land lying between Kansas and Missouri, is now withdrawn forever."

The old Cherokee does not seem to swallow the bait thrown out by the fishy Pike. He possesses too much sagacity to allow of his being duped by such seductive promises.—St. Louis Democrat.

DEATH OF EX-GOVERNOR BRIGGS, OF MASSACHUSETTS.—Ex-Governor George N. Briggs has died of the gunshot wound which, a few days ago, was reported as having occurred to him in his house in Massachusetts.

He was born in Andover, Berkshire Co., Massachusetts, on the 12th of April, 1796.

He commenced life as a hatter's apprentice, but his indomitable energy led him to abandon his trade for the purpose of acquiring a liberal education.

He spent a single year in an academy; fitted himself for the prosecution of legal studies by the reading of borrowed class books at the light of a log fire after his labors in the short winter days; entered an office as errand boy, but made such progress that in 1818, in his twenty-second year, he was admitted to the bar.

In 1831 he was elected a representative in congress from Massachusetts, and officiated as such till 1833, being chairman of the post office committee during the twenty-seventh congress.

In 1833 he was elected governor of Massachusetts—and since his demission of that office has been one of the most successful, energetic and respected lawyers in New England.

He said he was a county officer; that should he volunteer, the county would have to elect another office in his place, and it wasn't any ways likely they would get as good a one as he was. We are sorry to weaken the force of this excuse by adding that the gentleman already enjoys a high military title, which seems at present to be an empty honor.

THE RUGER GUARDS.—This fine company numbered this morning one hundred and one men. Without disparaging any of the former companies that have been raised in this city, we must say that this company is composed of men who look more like real effective service than any of their predecessors.

Capt. Ruger is drilling his company in a very thorough manner, and he is aided in this work most efficiently by Lieutenant Nichols, who we understand has had experience in military matters.

REBEL INSTITUTION.—We have it from the best authority that all officers, messengers, agents and mail guards of the Pike's Peak and California overland mail company are rank secessionists, and are doing all in their power to injure the government, whose pensioners they are. All Union men employed by the company have been discharged and secessionists put in their places.

This company has carried the mails of the United States to and from Pike's Peak and California since last spring at an enormous contract. We understand, however, that the government has not paid them any portion of the contract—which is unfortunate.

Is it not true that the post office department should withdraw its patronage from such institutions, and make some different arrangements for the carrying of its mails?

—Chicago Journal.

REPORTED TROUBLE AT DENVER.—We learn from Pike's Peak that there is serious trouble at Denver City. It seems that there is a pestiferous band of secessionists here, who are making all the trouble in their power, and the Union men, who are largely in the majority, were, at last accounts, preparing to clean them out.

It is altogether probable, our informant says, that there has been a fight at Denver before this. The secession men are cruel gamblers and loafers.—Chicago Journal.

GOVERNOR SPRAGUE.—The Providence Post pays the well merited tribute to Gov. Sprague:—It is not because Gov. Sprague is governor of the state, it is not, because of his wealth, it is not because of his experience in politics, that he is home and abroad so popular; but because he devotes money, gives his time, uses his office, offers his whole life to the service of his country, sharing the toil of a common soldier, while contributing the force of a thousand soldiers by his untiring activity, in sunburned garrisons and laboratories.—Chicago Journal.
